Hello,

I'm sathya kumar

Wordpress developer

Hello, my name is Sathya Kumar. I am a WordPress and PHP Developer with 2 years of experience, based in Chennai. Over the past two years, I've worked on building and customizing websites, developing themes and plugins, and optimizing site performance using WordPress and core PHP. I'm passionate about clean, efficient code and delivering user-friendly, responsive websites. I'm always eager to learn new technologies and grow as a developer in this fast-evolving web industry.
